RICHLAND
COUNTY
FOUNDATION

Friends of the Foundation,

What a year 2008 was for our community and our country! Who would have thought our nation's economic condition could change so quickly? With the social and economic challenges that confront us, Richland County finds itself in a position calling for change and, at the same time, reassurance. Communities like ours have challenges to be sure, but the strength and persistence that make up our midwestern background will continue to be a part of our foundation for the future. The desire among us to preserve our heritage and continue to build our community is still very much alive. The same is true for the Richland County Foundation.

In the past, we have been pleased to be part of the efforts of many who have come together to work and find solutions that serve our residents. The collaborations include helping those individuals who are out of work and in need; those families at risk of losing their homes; those who need assistance in furthering their education or improving their job skills; and those who work together in a myriad of ways to improve the quality of life in Richland County.

Fortunately, thanks to the vision and generosity of many, we have a community foundation that can help and that provides a permanent source of support through both difficult and good times. At the Richland County Foundation, your foundation, we have the unique opportunity to see the many ways in which people come together to meet needs, sometimes urgent; to support our quality of life; to preserve our history; and to innovate, collaborate, facilitate, and assist in order for Richland County to grow and prosper.

The Foundation's mission continues, as before, while we deal with the troubling economic times. Thank you to our donors for your past and future support, including your ideas, comments, and suggestions. We invite you to continue to be our partner in helping to improve our community, our lives, and our future in Richland County – For Good, For Ever.

Education: An Investment in the Future of Richland County

Education has long been a priority of the Foundation Board of Trustees and donors as one of the best ways to invest in the future and build economic stability. Recent Foundation strategic plans highlight education as an important focus.

In 2008 the Foundation played a substantial role in education initiatives and grantmaking. Support was provided for programs for children to improve reading skills, for after-school programs to develop character and discipline, and for unique programs that expose youth to new horizons and post-secondary opportunities.

We thank the many individuals and committee members who volunteered their time and expertise to evaluate grant opportunities and to help make these programs possible.

Grants to Educational Programs.

SPARC, Succeed and Prosper through Education (P-16)

– Ashland, Richland, Crawford is a regional initiative to address an under-educated workforce and promote increased prosperity. The three-county council brings together networks of employers, K-12 educators, higher education, community service organizations, economic development, and foundations.

Foundation President Pam Siegenthaler chaired the 16 member council for the initial 2008 year. SPARC's goals are to:

- Improve the flow of regional high school graduates into college or advanced workforce training, and
- Increase kindergarten students' pre-reading skills

A first collaborative major strategy was to have area high school and middle school students take the ACT EXPLORE (grade 8) and PLAN (grade 10) assessments. These assessments will lead to improved postsecondary planning and preparation by each student.

Teacher Assistance Program (TAP) awarded $33,968 in grants to 37 teachers for innovative programs that help students learn new skills, engage parents, or increase performance.

Scholarship grants	422
Total component funds	302
Total donors	665

Ashland University received a community grant to train Richland County teachers to meet new requirements by the State of Ohio to include financial literacy in high school core curriculum by 2010.

College Scholarships. New scholarship funds and partnerships with S.N. and Ada Ford Foundation and the Paul and Adelyn Schumaker Foundation contributed to the 422 undergraduate scholarships awarded in 2008. In addition to directed scholarship funds, the Board committed $160,000 from unrestricted funds.

Community Grants for Youth Programs.

Kids Connection received a grant of $25,000 for the Empowerment Program: Developing Leadership in Youth. The year-long program is offered for at-risk youth in Mansfield City and Shelby City Schools. It is a highly structured and goal-oriented program that was recently expanded to include girls. The girls from the program at Springmill Elementary School (pictured above) participate in an after-school mentoring program that includes student mentors from North Central State College.

2008 Year in Review

Programs for Youth. Some funds have annual grant programs to support youth and education. These are often small grants that have a big impact. With the help of special committees to review grant applications, $46,273 was awarded through the following:

Connections members awarded eight grants for unique educational and after-school programs teaching leadership skills, reading, nature, science, and history.

Summertime Kids, an initiative now in its 15th year, provided 20 grants for fun and educational programs for children who might not have other opportunities during the summer months.

Programs for Women and Girls. In partnership with the Renaissance Performing Arts, The Women's Fund brought inspirational speaker Bonnie St. John to the community. Complimentary tickets were offered to area schools, churches, daycare centers, and nonprofit organizations. As a Paralympian skier, Bonnie shared her inspirational story about overcoming difficulties.

Training Opportunities for Nonprofits. Through partnerships with other area foundations, the Ohio Association of Nonprofit Organizations, the Indiana School of Philanthropy, and the Mansfield/Richland

County Public Library, the Richland County Foundation presented three different workshops for the nonprofit community to help improve their business and operational practices. They included the following workshops:

Standards for Excellence, a comprehensive, four-day clinic on ethics and accountability, was taught by the Ohio Association of Nonprofit Organizations. It was held in partnership with the Fran and Warren Rupp Foundation and the Hire Family Foundation. In addition to the workshop, the 24 organizations who met requirements of attendance could receive up to a $2,500 grant to apply the principles of what they learned.

Fundamentals of Fundraising, a two-day workshop was taught by Karla Williams, ACFRE, a nationally known philanthropy consultant and faculty member from the Indiana School of Philanthropy.

Grantwriting Workshops were held in the spring and fall in partnership with the Mansfield/Richland County Public Library. The workshops are held each year to help nonprofit organizations prepare successful grant applications and learn how to find funding sources through the Foundation Center database.

Grant Highlights. In 2008 the Foundation granted $3 million to 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, primarily in our community. This is the largest amount awarded in the history of the Foundation.

Through a collection of unrestricted funds we call the Community Endowment, the Board of Trustees can award grants to respond to current needs in our community. In times when there is great uncertainty, we can feel assured in knowing that grants to meet important needs in Richland County will continue to be made now and forever.

As needs grew for emergency assistance, the Foundation responded with grants of over $167,000. These grants helped agencies provide utility, rent, and mortgage assistance; food, including hot meals; adult day care, in-house assistance for the elderly.

Grants provide capital improvements for aging facilities of two community service organizations.

Friendly House was awarded a grant of $52,000 (for final dollars) to restore the roof over the swimming pool and gymnasium. This grant comes 60 years after they received the very first grant awarded by Richland County Foundation, when the building was constructed. Friendly House serves families with meals, clothing, after-school programs, and recreational activities. Their services reach far beyond the local neighborhood to families across the county who participate in swimming, basketball, and summer camps.

The Rehab Center received a grant for $350,000 toward a $3 million capital campaign to restore the 1970s' building, to purchase equipment, and to construct a new building for New Beginnings Recovery House. As the only full-service rehabilitation facility in the area, The Rehab Center provides important health services in Richland County. A complete range of services includes physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, behavioral health, audiology and chemical dependency treatment.

2008 Grantmaking

Each year the Foundation awards grants to meet a broad range of areas including:

Basic Human Needs; Health; Education; Children, Youth, & Families; Arts & Culture; Community Services; Human Services; Economic Development; and the Environment.

Within each of these areas, grants are awarded in the following ways:

Competitive Community Grants are supported by the Foundation's unrestricted and field-of-interest funds. Community grants are awarded six times a year. Special grantmaking initiatives with annual grant programs include Summertime Kids, Teacher Assistance Program (TAP), Connections, and The Women's Fund. Grant application guidelines and due dates are available on our website at www.rcfoundation.org.

Designated Grants ensure long-term annual support to nonprofit organizations from funds established and directed by donors to support one or more organizations.

Donor Advised Grants are made through suggestions from individuals or families who have established funds at the Foundation. Donors most often suggest grants for local organizations, but they can also suggest grants to other 501 (c)(3) organizations throughout the United States, including their alma mater.

College Scholarships are awarded to Richland County undergraduate students who attend an accredited college or university, demonstrate a minimum grade-point average, and show financial need.

Members participate in a variety of networking and educational events held throughout the county.

The Women's Fund was established to promote philanthropy among women by creating a permanent endowment fund to support programs that empower women to achieve their full potential. Since the fund was established in 1996, more than $160,000 in grants have been awarded, including college scholarships to non-traditional female students.

annual grantmaking programs

Teacher Assistance Program (TAP) provides mini-grants for area classroom teachers who have developed creative and innovative new programs, projects, or events in grades K-12. A workshop on grant requirements is held in the winter and an awards ceremony in May.

Summertime Kids grants provide support for nonprofit organizations to develop creative, educational, and fun-filled activities for Richland County children during the summer months. Many of the programs benefit children who are underserved in our community. A grant workshop is held in January.

Richland County Children Services "Summer Fun Days." A variety of field trips and summertime activities provided children in their care fun and educational activities, as well as healthy outlets for their energy.

Scholarships. The Foundation has been awarding college scholarships for many decades to help students pursue their academic goals.

Richland County students are eligible to apply if they are attending, or plan to attend, an accredited college or university on a full-time basis, demonstrate a minimum grade-point average, and show financial need. Program Officer Becky Smith meets with guidance counselors of each school district to explain the application process.

Scholarship Funds can be established as a memorial to a special person and to express a donor's educational interests and values.

Giving through Richland County Foundation

The leadership role of the Richland County Foundation would not be possible without the foresight of our founders or the generous gifts of donors both past and present.

The faces of our donors are as varied as the charities and causes they support. The 302 funds at the Foundation have been established by school teachers, professionals, local business owners, nonprofit organizations, service clubs, and others.

There is a place at the table for everyone.

Although the Foundation receives many larger gifts through estates, the median gift remains at $100. Gifts of all sizes are important and, when pooled with others, make a significant difference in the quality of life in Richland County.

Reverend Wray C. Smith will be fondly remembered as a friend, active supporter of the Foundation, and member of the Legacy Society. In 1995 Wray established the Wray C. and Janet B. Smith Donor Advised Fund. He served on the Richland County Foundation Board of Trustees from 1994–2003 and was Foundation Chair from 1996–1998.

ways to give

Opportunities for giving. There are many ways to partner with the Foundation to support the community needs that are important to you. Our professional staff helps donors explore the many options at the Foundation.

Opportunities include:

- Establishing a fund in the donor's name, to honor another, or to support an important cause
- Contributing to any of the over 300 existing funds at the Foundation
- Establishing a Foundation Fellowship to support community grants for our county's changing needs
- Becoming a member of the Legacy Society by making plans to leave an end-of-life gift to the Foundation
- Establishing a Charitable Gift Annuity and receiving income from your gift during your lifetime

Professional Advisors. We partner with professional advisors to assist in the charitable giving process. Advisors can recommend creative solutions that offer maximum tax advantages and meet their clients' charitable interests. Working together with the Richland County Foundation, clients can learn about the unique role community foundations play in matching giving options with donor interests and community needs.

Conversations may include:

- Why create a charitable fund rather than make an outright gift to a charity?
- What are the tax advantages of creating a charitable fund?
- How can I provide for my children and also give to charity?

The Richland County Foundation administers 302 funds that serve a variety of charitable purposes. The six fund types include both endowed and non-endowed funds, offering donors flexibility.

Unrestricted Funds offer the broadest options for charitable giving. This type of fund gives the Foundation Board the ability to respond to ever-changing needs of our community.

Field of Interest Funds give donors the opportunity to support specific interests within a broad area such as children's programs, education, seniors, or aiding the homeless.

Donor Advised Funds give donors and their families the opportunity to make grant suggestions to favorite charities. These funds are a flexible and convenient way to give to charitable organizations and are an easy and attractive alternative to a private foundation.

Designated Funds give donors the opportunity to provide annual support to specific charities. Should the organization(s) cease to exist, the Foundation has the responsibility to ensure that a donor's original intent is met.

Scholarship Funds provide grants to undergraduate college students. Donors can establish funds to support certain fields of study, community of residence, or specific schools. They are often established in the name of a loved one.

Agency Funds are established by charitable organizations and can be endowed or non-endowed. The agency benefits from the Foundation's professional asset management, allowing the agency's staff and board to focus on providing services to their constituents.

How to establish a fund. Establishing a fund to create your giving legacy is simple. Call the Foundation office at 419.525.3020 to speak with President Pam Siegenthaler about the many ways you can partner with the Foundation to meet your charitable goals.

types of funds

new funds

Charles V. and Constance D. Adair. The Adairs have established a donor advised fund as a convenient way to suggest grants to charitable organizations that are important to them.

Croghan Family Fund for Renaissance Performing Arts and the Croghan Family Fund for Richland Academy of the Arts. Friends and family held a musical benefit at the Renaissance Theatre to honor Dr. Thomas Croghan. As a result, the Croghan Family Fund was established to support his interests in performing arts and education.

Leona M. Miles Fund II. Leona Miles was a teacher in Mansfield City Schools for 50 years. A gift from her estate established a fund directed to support crippled children in Richland County.

Richland Newhope Fund II, Agency Endowment. Richland Newhope established an endowed fund to support their mission.

2008 legacy society

The Legacy Society was created by the Board of Trustees to recognize individuals who have made plans to leave a gift to this community in partnership with the Richland County Foundation. Donors may create a lasting legacy by making a gift through their estate plans, including the Foundation in their will, as a future beneficiary of a qualified retirement plan or IRA, through an insurance policy, remainder trust, Charitable Gift Annuity, or other similar planned gift.

The Richland County Foundation acknowledges the following generous people who have planned a legacy to their community through gifts that will eventually come to the Foundation for the benefit of others:

Frank K. Ackard	Robert & Doris* Enskat	Everett W. & Beverly Miller
Dr. Charles & Constance Adair	Bob* & Esther Fry	Rev. William C. & Ruth M. Newman

Creating a Legacy

In 2002 Dan and Barbara McBride (pictured at right) established the Michael Robert McBride Memorial Fund in memory of their son. They became members of the Legacy Society when they recently established a Charitable Gift Annuity.

Charitable Gift Annuities provide income during a donor's lifetime and a permanent gift to the Foundation after the last payment.

The McBrides have requested that the remainder of their gift become part of the Richland County Foundation Scholarship Fund. Dan and Barbara were both school teachers for Mansfield City Schools.

To learn more about Charitable Gift Annuities visit our website at www.rcfoundation.org where you can also view an annuity payment schedule, based upon age.

Many memorial and honor gifts are received each year. These special gifts build the community endowment that support grant programs throughout the year. Family and friends made gifts in tribute to the following individuals:

In memory of:

Donald Finefrock established the Finefrock Memorial Fund in 1991 to honor his father, John H. Finefrock, who was one of the original seven founders of the Richland County Foundation. Don established the fund to support recreation and entertainment programs for children served by Richland County Children Services, where he had been a long-time board member.

Ethel Mayer established the Ethel Mayer Southeast Community Fund in 2002. The fund supports programs and projects for the neighborhood and residents of southeast Mansfield. Ethel taught at several elementary schools in the Mansfield City School system. Her generosity will provide long-term support for the schools and neighborhood where she taught and lived.

Rowland Poth established The Rowland and Delight Patricia Poth Fund in 1999. His generous estate gift to this endowed fund is designated to support Kingwood Center, where his wife was a long-time volunteer.

Foundation Fellows. The Fellowship program was created to honor individuals who give unrestricted gifts of $1,000 or more to benefit the Community Fund. Through the combined gifts of Foundation Fellows the Richland County Foundation Board of Trustees can award grants to address our county's most pressing needs.

Two end-of life gifts established fellowships for the following individuals:

Naomi J. Albers (pictured above) lived in Mansfield most of her life. She taught at Mansfield City Schools for 20 years and was an active member of United Methodist Church—Mansfield. An unrestricted gift from her estate established a Visionary Fellowship.

Dr. Donald Beddard (pictured above) served as a trustee for the Richland County Foundation from 1991– 2000 and was the Chair of the Board from 1998 – 2000. During his tenure he helped start the Teacher Assistance Program (TAP) to provide small grants to teachers. Memorial contributions established a Legacy Fellowship.
